

CAMPUS UPDATE

What a brilliant introduction to the new academic year we have had at Meridian Campus!

It's been a busy start to term as we have transitioned into new classes welcomed new students, families, and staff to our brilliant team. The children have adapted to their new classroom environments and have enjoyed taking part in our book corner competition. Every class has an inviting and engaging book corner for children to explore books for pleasure and reading development. This week we have been celebrating 'Roald Dahl Day' and developing a love of reading.

At Meridian Dysons Road and Springfield children are following a curriculum timetable that includes reading, English and maths as well as a wide range of non-core subjects. Our broad and balanced curriculum is taught in a multi-sensory approach and learning is personalised with reasonable adjustments that allow all our students to access learning in a manner that supports their SEN needs.

Children at Springfield and Dysons Road have been having lots of fun riding scooters and bikes, bouncing on trampolines and exploring our range of outdoor learning areas. In our brilliant allotment a huge pumpkin is growing along with a range of salad and vegetables, but sadly the tomatoes are still green thanks to the great British summer!

Please follow us on Twitter @Meridian_Campus where we share regular updates about all the exciting day to day events in our school community.
