

CAMPUS UPDATE

February was a fun, busy month at Meridian. Children have been taking part in sports events with other schools from Enfield in Panathlon challenges. This week KS1 students came third out of 15 teams in a bowling competition!

We celebrated LGBTQ+ month by encouraging students to get creative on "dress to express" day. Additionally, all classes have been working hard on their curriculum topics and really impressed us with their confidence when talking about their learning.

Sadly, there are currently some huge events happening in the world that may cause distress to the children, families and staff in our community. We are supporting the children where appropriate to understand these events. If you would like any support in talking about difficult or challenging issues at home, please contact us as we have strategies and resources that may be helpful.

Our staff have recently taken part in a range of Elklan communication training that we would like to share with you so you can continue to support your child outside of school. Please come to our coffee mornings to chat and hear more.

World Book Day saw the children across both sites bring stories to life by dressing up, meeting their favourite characters and taking part in activities including puppet shows, scavenger hunts and assemblies to share and tell stories. Ledley King, a Tottenham Hotspur Ambassador visited Dysons Road to share his favourite books. It was a brilliant day and we even featured in the Tottenham Hotspur newsletter.

We can see the impact home reading is having on reading and writing development for our children so please do keep up with the daily E-Book reading with your child.
