School closes at 1.30pm on Friday 16th December and will reopen to learners on Wednesday 4th January 2023.

Events and key dates

This week we sent home our term dates for the Academic year 2023-2024. Please take a moment and read through these as they are slightly different to the published local authority dates.

We have also set all our Parent/Carer meeting dates and INSET dates for your information.

If you would like an additional copy of the dates, please visit our website at <https://westleaschool.co.uk/dates-to-remember-3/> or speak to your campus office.

Wishing you all a restful break, see you in January!

Safeguarding

Over the festive period you are still able to get support from school if you have a safeguarding concern. If your concern is not immediate, please email: safeguarding@westleaschool.co.uk. If you need immediate support, please phone rather than emailing. The number to phone is: 0208 807 2656.

In addition to the above, if you are worried about the welfare of a child or young person you may also report your concerns to Safeguarding Enfield – Children's MASH; their contact details are listed below:
